

Join the College of General Studies in Celebrating the 7th Annual National Nontraditional Student Week November 2 – 7, 2009

Monday, November 2, 2009

Film: "Please Understand Me"
Monday, 10am, 11am, 2pm, 3:30pm
McCarl Center Resources Library

Alpha Sigma Lambda Call to Leadership Town Hall Meeting
McCarl Center Conference Room
Monday, 5-6 pm

Join Alpha Sigma Lambda and current member of the CGSGB as they discuss the opportunities explicit in their call to serve and find out how you can take a more active role in their programs.

Brown Bag & Film: Generation Kill, part 1
Monday, noon-1 pm
McCarl Center Lounge

Film: Donald in Math Magic Land
Monday, 2-3:30pm
McCarl Center Lounge

Join the CGS Math Tutor, Donna Rosenberg and take a fun look at Math by viewing this film which is the story of Donald Duck, the world's most skeptical duck, who travels to Greece to meet Pythagoras, the father of Math and Music. A facilitated discussion will immediately follow this

Tuesday, November 3, 2009

Brown Bag & Film: Generation Kill, part 2
Tuesday, noon-1 pm
McCarl Center Lounge

Office of Veteran Services: Support Our Local Deployed Soldiers
Tuesday, 2:00-3:00 pm
McCarl Center Conference Room

Resume Writing Workshop

Tuesday, 4-5:30 pm
McCarl Center Conference Room
Pam Harris, the CGS Career Counselor, will meet with students and present them with strategies for preparing the perfect resume. A special section of this workshop will also be presented by Ann Rairigh, Director of Veteran's Services, who will advise veterans on how to construct a military to civilian resume.

Join representatives from Pitt's Office of Veteran's Services, CGS Student Government Board and the McCarl Center in a public service project to support the 316th Army Reserve Engineering Asphalt Detachment from Pittsburgh who are stationed in Afghanistan at Camp Leatherneck.

Library Tour & Meet 'n' Greet
Tuesday, 5-6 pm

Hillman Library, Ground Floor & Cup of Chaucer
Join with students in CGS 0092 – Mastering the University as they take a guided and virtual tour of Hillman Library, then meet up with CGS Student Government in Cup of Chaucer for a Meet 'n' Greet.

Wednesday, November 4, 2009

The 10 Things Employers Want You To Learn In College

Wednesday, 2-4 pm

McCarl Center Career Library*

You'll learn a lot of things in college, but there's one thing the textbooks won't teach you: how to acquire marketing job skills before you graduate.

*CGS students participating in this event will be eligible to receive a free copy of Bill Coplin's book compliments of the CGS Alumni Society.

Brown Bag & Film: Generation Kill, part 3
Wednesday, noon-1 pm
McCarl Center Lounge

Everything You Ever Wanted To Know About Advising But Were Afraid To Ask

Wednesday, 2-3:00 pm

McCarl Center Conference Room

Join Tim Carr, Senior CGS Advisor, who will be available during this session to answer any questions students may have about the CGS/University advising process.

Managing Your Money 101
Wednesday, 3-5:30 pm

McCarl Center Conference Room

Many nontraditional students experience difficulty in managing their money as they try to balance multiple financial and college roles. In this workshop, students will learn to develop basic money management skills. Ten different steps for participants to use when sorting out and using money will be presented.

7th Annual National Nontraditional Student Week

November 2 – 7, 2009

Thursday, November 5, 2009

Writing for Scholarships

Thursday, 3-4pm

McCarl Center Conference Room

Writing and applying for scholarships are not easy tasks. In this workshop, students will learn where to find some of the most popular scholarships for nontraditional students. Information on how to fill out the scholarship package, including how to write the application essay will be presented. Techniques for handling the scholarship interview will also be discussed.

Study Abroad Opportunities for Nontraditional Students Workshop

Thursday, 4-6 pm

McCarl Center Conference Room

Last summer two of CGS's nontraditional students participate in a study abroad experience. Join Rebecca Keller and Angela Fabrini as they discuss their experiences in London and Italy and learn how you too can study abroad.

Brown Bag & Film:

Generation Kill, part 4

Thursday, noon-1 pm

McCarl Center Lounge

Change Your Thoughts –

Change Your Life

Thursday, 2-4 pm

McCarl Center Lounge

Dr. Wayne Dyer's popular PBS program on Chinese philosopher Lao-Tzu's Tao Te Ching addresses how it's possible to change your thoughts on some of the most profound questions and issues confronting you today – and how, by doing so, your life will be transformed in a peaceful and harmonious way. A facilitated discussion will immediately follow this film.

Friday, November 6, 2008

CGS Student Government / Alumni Society Networking Social*

Friday, 4-6pm : McCarl Center Lounge

Join the CGS Student Government and the CGS Alumni Council as they welcome Jana Sestili, Director of External Relations for the Pitt Alumni Association, who will discuss the many opportunities they provide for students to interact with CGS and other University Alumni.

*CGS Students attending this event will be eligible to win a $250 book scholarship

Please RSVP to cgssg@pitt.edu

Brown Bag & Film:

Generation Kill, part 5

Friday, noon-1 pm

McCarl Center Lounge

The final two sequels to this 7-part series will be shown on Monday, November 9th and Tuesday, November 10th from 12:00 – 1:00 pm in the McCarl Center Conference Room.

Steel City Greyhounds

Friday, 3-7 pm

Cathedral Lawn

The McCarl Center Staff and the Office of Veteran's Services welcome the Steel City Greyhounds, Inc. Visit with several star adoptees and learn about this extraordinary program.

Saturday, November 7, 2008

Continental Breakfast for CGS Saturday College Students

Saturday, 9-11 am

McCarl Center

Join CGS students, faculty and staff in light conversation and breakfast, compliments of the CGS Student Government.

Library Tour & Meet 'n' Greet

Saturday, 12-1 pm

Hillman Library, Ground Floor & Cup of Chaucer
Join with students in Mastering the University and CGS Student Government.

